All you need to do is to present your current MCA I.D. card at their circulation desks.

The libraries participating in the program are

Boston State College

From: Nick Lammerman and the Admissions Committee:

It is time once again to review portfolios for the incoming Freshman class. The Admissions office has on hand approximately 200 portfolios to be reviewed and expects several hundred more in within the next 2 - 3 weeks. We would like you all to come in whenever you can make it (before March 5th) and spend one hour reviewing portfolios to help select the incoming Freshman class.
